TO THE LADIES.
By Letters Patent of the United States.
S. CRANE'S
PATENT COMPOUND SOAP.
WARRANTED to do no injury to Clothing, and to be the best Soap preparation in use. A half pound is all that is required for the washing of all that ten gallons of suds will soak, and dispensing entirely with boiling, which no other preparation PRETENDS to do, and the use of the WASHING MACHINE and RUBBING BOARD, thereby saving the expense of fires and the most severe labors of the washing day, and also the entire wear and tear of the Clothing [to say nothing of the hands,] in washing, which is frequently the most destructive to which clothing is subjected.
The Suds after the wash, is the best article for the cleansing of painted surfaces, wood work, oil cloth, carpets, iron railing, &c, that many ladies in this city who have tried it, ever saw.
Warranted the best Soap in use for removing grease spots from clothing, the cleaning and whitening of summer Hats, etc; excellent for bathing, especially in sickness, leaving the skin soft, clear and PERFECTLY CLEAN, and in washing, not making the hands sore like preparations containing soda.
Ladies! the above is no HUMBUG! as numerous testimonials of those who have used it will demonstrate, and to the truth of which the reputation of the subscriber is pledged. All he asks is that it shall be proven, according to the directions accompanying each package. Ladies, try it

MONDAY AFTERNOON, JAN. 26.

The Free Soilers.

Since the union of the Hunkers of the old parties in the Assembly, to divide the spoils, in exclusion of the Free Soilers, some of the presses of those parties have pleased themselves mightily with the idea, that that "miserable faction," as they call us, has lost all influence and become of no conquence.—We can easily imagine that they should consider the loss of all office, as the loss of all influence. For inasmuch as it is the sole object of their existence, it is natural that they should regard its possession as the only reward of victory, and its loss as the only misfortune of defeat. But without claiming that Free Soilers have no desire for office, we do claim that they have other and far higher desires, and are laboring for mightier objects, which the enjoyment of office cannot bribe them to betray, and which its loss cannot discourage them from steadily and faithfully pursuing to the last. And as to these objects, their influence has not only not been lost, but has been felt, by both those parties, who are now seeking to persuade themselves of its non-existence. It has helped one of them to its first victory in this State, and has caused the other's first, and, we trust not last defeat. That little, and, as they would have us believe, powerless faction, has caused the voice of Wisconsin to be heard against the Fugitive Law, and thus preserved our State from the dishonor of ever having supported that infernal enactment. That "little faction" has caused one of its truest and noblest members to be elected Representative to Congress from this district! We do not pretend that it has done these things alone, but without its influence they could not have been done.—In both instances the acted with the whigs.—But in the election of Mr. Durkee, the whigs acted as Free Soilers, and not as whigs. They nobly abandoned their own organization to promote those great principles for which the Free Soilers contend, and with which they will stand or fall. And herein lies their strength! That their political faith is founded upon the rock of liberty and justice. And though the storms of partisanship shall beat against it, and the tide of political corruption may for a time overwhelm it, yet those storms shall clear and that tide shall pass away, and their faith shall stand, as surely as liberty and justice shall remain dear to the hearts of men. The Free Soilers have an influence, and however little it may now be, it is the leaven that is to "leaven the whole lump,"—it is the influence that is to save this nation from destruction, if it be the will of God that it shall be saved at all. Every day makes it more and more evident that the two great antagonistical elements in our country are liberty and slavery. On the side of the latter stand the Propagandists. On the side of the former, the Free Soilers.—And as the one or the other shall succeed so shall the honor and the welfare of our nation perish or be redeemed.

The distribution of the offices in the Assembly is a matter of very little importance. The Free Soilers have the balance of power in that body now, and if their only object was a wanton display of that power they might yet convince some papers that their influence was not entirely lost. But they have no such object. And whether the whigs have treated them fairly or otherwise, they certainly will not allow motives of revenge, growing out of that treatment, to influence their action upon any future questions which concern the interests of the State, or, the great principles of public policy which they advocate. No! Strong in the truth of those principles, they will labor on unswerved by selfish or private motives, with an unwavering faith in their ultimate triumph. And we believe the day will come when thier Countrymen shall honor them for having interposed a barrier to the on rushing tide of slave-holding influence, and when men will look back to the Free Soilers and Hunkers of the present time, with the same feelings as we now look back to the Whigs and Tories of the Revolution.

☞ It is said that seventeen of Kossuth's progenitors have at different times, been executed for opposing despotic rule. So it seems, that this great apostle of human freedom came honestly by his exalted love of liberty having inherited it from his ancestors.—The blood of these martyrs has, perhaps, raised up, in the person of Kossuth, a man who will avenge such fiendish and inhuman atrocities, and overthrow the power of despotism in Hungary, and make the tyrants of the Old World, who rule without mercy, tremble for the safety of their kingdoms.

☞ The celebration of the Anniversary of Franklin's birth day, at Detroit, by the printers was an entire failure.

☞ On Monday morning, last, at Lancaster, Grant Co., Thermometer stood at 32 degrees below zero.

☞ A house was blown up at King's Creek, Va., a week or two since, by a keg of powder, and two children killed—one of whom caused the explosion, by applying a lighted match to the powder, being ignorant of the fatal consequences that would follow—and ten persons seriously injured.

☞ The Pope says Louis Napoleon has "saved society and religion." The "religion" and the savior thus referred to, are doubtless worthy of each other.

☞ We believe we send the Fond du Lac Patriot our Daily regularly, and in return we might reasonably expect to receive the Patriot, with some degree of regularity.—But such is not the case. For instance last Saturday evening we received the Patriot which was published the Saturday before—just one week old—and a daily mail between the two places.

We always like to see the Patriot as soon after publication as is convenient, especially when it has an editorial of a column and a half in length dedicated almost entirely to ourself, as in its issue of the 17th inst. It calls us all sorts of names, utters terrible denunciations against us; speaks as familiarly of the "Devil and his angels" as though they were its most intimate friends, and for aught we know they are.

It declares the axiom that "all men are created equal" an absurdity—calls the constitution the "higher law," and paramount to the law of the Almighty, impugns the motives of Free Soilers, believes their real object is adverse to their ostensible one, and that they are at heart, the worst enemies of the Slave.

It finally admits that some who sympathize with the enslaved are actually sincere in their opinions.

The Patriot man is certainly entitled to great credit for his sagacity in moral and political discoveries, and is quite an eminent "higher law" theologian and if Justice is meeted out to him he will soon receive an appointment as Professor of theology in some lunatic asylum. Still, with all his Judas-like piety the prayers of "Gods people" might avail him much, and aid him in the discharge of his laborious duties, and he should receive them.

DEATH OF JAMES G. BIRNEY.—James G. Birney died at his residence in Saginaw, Michigan, last week. His name has been identified with the Liberty Party for several years.

A true friend of liberty and humanity is gone. But not until he has seen the cause which he so nobly advocated in its weakness, defended by a host of faithful friends, whom he has left behind him to carry it forward. If they will do their duty as faithfully as he has done his, that cause must succeed.

☞ An editor down east is responsible for the following:

"It is delicious to have a pretty girl open the front door and mistake you for her cousin; but still more delicious—to have her remain deceived until she has kissed you twice, and buggered the buttons off your coat. "Ma, here's Chawles."

The last sentence of the above evinces enough of a silly affectation to spoil all the kisses of all the cousins in Cousindom.

"ABOLITIONISM" AGAIN.—The following rejoinder, of the Beloit Journal, to the Fond du Lac Patriot, is so full of truth, candor and good sense, on a subject upon which the presses of the old parties are usually so unfair and abusive that we take great pleasure in publishing it:

"There is only one point in his remarks worthy of discussion, and that is the assertion that we use the term "Abolitionist" in a sense foreign to the one it has obtained in common parlance. This we deny. There has been an effort made recently, on the part of some individuals and presses who were anxious to get as far as possible from every thing that savored of extreme opinion or turbulent tendency, to torture the original and true meaning of this term; and it was for this reason that we took so much pains to explain the matter, as we understood it. As we explained the matter, we believe it to be right. On that ground we stand, and in that sense we are, and ever have been an abolitionist, as we ever expect to be, and as nearly every man in the North is also. The question now raised is, whether that was a proper definition of the term, abolitionist. And it is susceptible of an easy settlement. Garrison was long known as an abolitionist before he proposed to abolish Slavery by overthrowing the Constitution. But was he any the less an abolitionist then than now? Not in "common parlance," for he was always called by that name. The old Liberty Party was composed of abolitionists, and yet they have never taken the ground that it was right or advisable to do violence to the Constitution in order to further their plans, but proposed to perform all their acts within its precincts. The late Free Soil party was composed of earnest and hearty abolitionists, yet the effort to show that they openly designed to accomplish any purpose inimical to the Constitution, or were secretly hostile to that instrument, would be fruitless. The fact is, nearly all men in the Free States are abolitionists, and insist on being considered so; and during the inception and entire existence of both the Liberty and Free Soil parties, the members of the other parties protested that they were as good abolitionists as the members of those parties, but only dissented from them as to the propriety of making it a party question, or the basis of a separate party organization. All who have assisted in the anti-slavery movement, contributed of their means, encouraged the discussion, or expressed themselves as favorable to what seemed to them the most practicable means of removing Slavery, whether by gradual or immediate emancipation, have been called abolitionists. That is our understanding of the matter, and we submit the question to our readers, whether it be so or not.

A SUDDEN DEATH.—Remarkable Occurrence.—A letter from Mr. John Dix, in Somerset Co., Md., says:

"On the 25th of November, a female of 10 years old, died suddenly in my school.—She asked permission to retire a few minutes before 10, a. m. After having recited her lessons, as usual, and after walking a few paces from the door, she fainted. On being immediately taken up, and laid softly down in the school-house, she expired. What is most remarkable, when she awoke that morning, she told her mother that she dreamed that she had went to school and died, and was carried to her aunt's, which actually and literally came to pass the same day."

Criterion of Failures.—Charles J. Fox, the English statesman, said, "I don't like to judge any one after a success; I like to see what a man is after a failure."

CITY MATTERS.

BURNS SUPPER AT BELDEN'S.—Gentlemen will meet at 8 o'clock precisely to elect officers for the evening.

POLICE.—D. Van Deren, arrested some days since for forging city orders, was examined on Saturday before Esq. Walworth, and held to bail in the sum of $1000, and in default of which was committed.

"WHEN GREEK MEETS GREEK," &c.—We have been informed by a communication from "A Boarder," that a "personal rencontre" came off between the Editor of the Wisconsin and one of the proprietors of the Sentinel, on Saturday evening last, at the States. It seems that it took place at the table. Whether it was intended as a "new dish," not in the bill of fare, got up by way of variety, we don't know, but if so, it was not relished, by all the "Boarders."

According to our best information the Sentinel man had the advantage, as far as pugilism is concerned, but in swearing, the Editor of the Wisconsin is said to have rivalled Old Hickory himself, or even the whole "army in Flanders." Our correspondent has requested us, as "a conservator of the public morals," to rebuke such a glaring violation of them in public. But we rather feel inclined to sympathize with our brother in distress, and to think it a great pity if he could'nt be allowed to swear a little, since it is notorious that he "could'nt do anything else." It probably "eased his mind," if not his body, and let off the pent up vials of his wrath, which might have burst a blood vessel, or caused some other serious calamity, had they not been allowed to escape through their natural channel. We hope when the next scene comes off, due notice will be given, after the manner of "Dublin Tricks" and "Awful Gardner," so that we may buy a ticket and be there to take notes. Such battles only need a faithful historian, to immortalize the actors.

As an illustration of the old saying, that "extremes meet;" we learn that while this "bit of fun" was enjoyed by those in high life, a similar amusement was shared by those in a humbler sphere, and that while Mars, in person, was raging at the States, some of his corporals were presiding over a 'knock down' among the hostlers of one of the Livery Stables.

And as the whole kennel of "the dogs of war" seems to be fairly let loose, we may as well add that still another collision came almost off, between a couple of worthies in relation to "That Bond."

To the Ladies of Milwaukee.

The Ladies of Milwaukee who feel interested in the present fearful struggle between the principles of liberty and despotism in Europe, are invited to assemble at the hall of the Musical Society, in Dickerman's Block, on Wednesday the 28th inst., at 3 o'clock P. M. to listen to the report of the Committee appointed several weeks since, to gather contributions of money, and articles of value, to be devoted to the support and promotion of the plan so beautifully and eloquently explained and urged by the patriot Kinkel, during his late visit to this city. And also to determine in what manner the great variety of useful and fancy articles, already collected, and that shall hereafter be received, may be most profitably disposed of. The Committee indulge the hope that the American Ladies of Milwaukee will not be indifferent to this call, but that they will give free exercise to that warm and earnest practical sympathy with the wronged and oppressed, and hatred of the oppressor, so natural to the female character, and so peculiarly characteristic of the ladies of the only land of liberty in the world.

Contributions of money, and of every kind of ladies handiwork, of fancy and useful articles, etc., will be most gratefully received.—The meeting of the 28th inst. will be addressed in German by Madame Anneke, and in English by D. A. J. Upham, Esq.

KATINKA NAPRSTEK, Pres.
E. MUELLER, Sec'y.

A DUEL.—We understand that a duel was fought in the outskirts of the city yesterday afternoon, by two persons, residents of this city. The weapons used were pistols, and the distance 25 paces.

The challenged party having the first shot fired his charge into the air, while the challenger, taking deliberate aim at his antagonist, fired, and the ball, whistled past his ear, and lodged in a neighboring fence.

The parties were then satisfied, shook hands and returned home.—Cleve. Herald.

LIQUOR LAW.—Mr. Hastings of Walworth addressed the members of the Legislature in the Assembly Hall last evening, on the subject of the Maine Liquor Law for this State. The address consisted chiefly of a very judicious compilation of facts and statistics in relation to the operations of that law in Maine, and showing conclusively that it has accomplished all that its most sanguine friends had anticipated for it. This law is daily gaining favor throughout the State. A monster petition has been presented for this object in Massachusetts, with fair hopes of success; and another in New York containing many thousand signatures, and backed by some of the most powerful personal influence of the State. A large number of petitions are in circulation in this State, and are being numerously signed for the adoption of the Maine Law. Public opinion seems ripening to this end. A larger proportion of the members of the present Legislature are temperance men, than any previous; and we should not be much surprised to see this law passed at the present session.—Madison Dem.

Forgiveness.—My heart was heavy, for its trust had been abused, its kindness answered with foul wrong—so turning gloomily from my fellow men, one summer Sabbath day, I strolled among the green mounds of the village burial place; where, pondering how all human love and hate, find one sad level, and how, soon or late, wronged and wrong doer, each with meekened face and cold hands folded over a still heart, pass the green threshold of our common grave, whither all footsteps tend—whence none depart. Awed for myself, and pitying my race, our common sorrow like a mighty wave, swept all my pride away, and trembling I forgave.—J. G. Whittier.

BLASPHEMY.—The Fugitive Slave Law is sneered, as constituting the late Compromise which preseved our Union.—N. Y. Courier and Enquirer.

Gov. Dewey's Financiering.

MADISON, Jan. 23, 1852.

The communication of Ex-Gov. Dewey to Governor Farwell, read yesterday in the Assembly, explaining his management of the State Funds, on his own responsibility, shows that he is entitled to be appointed State Barber, for life.

It appears from his communication, that the United States owed this State, for Territorial scrip, paid by the State, from six to ten thousand dollars—a rather indefinite sum. This claim had not been paid, because, 1st, a settlement had not been made with Mr. Floyd, Territorial Secretary, in whose hands funds had been placed to discharge these debts, and 2d, because a definite account current had not been rendered between the State and the U. States. The Auditor of the United States also sent instructions to the Executive, as to the manner of making out the account; thus showing that the United States were willing to pay the amount due, as soon as the proper vouchers were rendered. The Ex-Governor says, he knew all about this matter personally, but could not tell precisely when, nor to whom the scrip was paid, and being afraid the State would never get its pay, he sent—without any authority of law—George P. Delaplaine, Esq., his Private Secretary—who knew no more definitely about the matter than the Governor, and probably much less—to log-roll the account through the U. S. Treasury. And the Governor, being a shrewd man, and wishing to drive a good bargain for the State, and sharpen the wits of his Private Secretary, made this official "dicker" with Mr. Delaplaine: If Mr. Delaplaine failed to settle the account with the United States, and get no money from Uncle Sam, the Governor, having no funds of his own, and the State having provided none for such a purpose, he was to have "his labor for his pains." If he settled the account, and got money enough to pay himself, he was to have all his expenses borne, and five hundred dollars to boot. Of course, he would settle the account, if possible, under the pressure of such a motive. He did so, and received from the United States the sum of $8,020 03. And to kill two birds with one stone, the Governor authorized Mr. Delaplaine to purchase stationery, in New York, for the different Departments. Mr. Delaplaine asked for bids, and accepted one from Messrs. Wheeler & Co., the lowest offered in that city, and agreed—without any authority whatever—to pay them $1,873 24, immediately on his return to Wisconsin.

By the Constitution, the Governor has no more authority to make such purchases, or to pay for them from the funds of the State, than we have, and such acts on his part are not only unauthorized, but are expressly contrary to the Constitution. See section 25, of Constitution. A private citizen, who should thus infringe the law of the State, would soon be taught that the law was made for transgressors. Should not public officers be held to as rigid an accountability, as private citizens?

The Governor admits that no specific appropriations were made, and no authority of law existed for disbursing this sum of $8,020 03. Well, what did he do with it? Put it into the State Treasury, as it was his duty to do? Not a dollar of it. To be sure, the books read, as if he had paid some $4,142 of it into the Treasury, and afterward drawn it out again; but we are assured that such was not the case. Indeed, had it once got into the Treasury, he could not have got it out again legally, without a specific appropriation. If the fact, that the State owes debts, authorizes such creditors as are in favor with the Governor to get their pay, and the Governor to pay them, without an appropriation, such joyful news ought not to be withheld from those who have waited so long on the Legislature, in vain, for their pay.

The Governor paid out this money, including $28,23 premium for draft, as follows:

On private bargain, between himself and Private Secretary,	$890 00
For his Private Secretary's bids for Stationery,	1,873 24
For contingent expenses,	824 51
For law books [for Executive guidance?—Ed.]	2,330 01
For town plats purchased,	800 00
For contingent expenses,	1,000 00
For one quarter's salary as Governor,	312 50
Total	8,030 26

These are the items the Governor presents, and he "cyphers" it up so as to make it amount to $8,048 26—just the amount received—but, by our adding up, it is just ($18) Eighteen Dollars less! It struck us, at first, as quite remarkable, that the Governor's disbursements should have just covered his receipts, and no more, and, on examination, as still more remarkable, that so shrewd a financier should have run a tilt at the rules of Arithmetic, to make his accounts balance each other.

Now we wish to call the attention of the Legislature and the people, to the following facts:

1. Authority had been given to Messrs. Darling and Doty to prosecute this claim, but that authority had expired.

2. Gov. Dewey had no authority to act in this matter, and had no more right to touch the scrip, in the State Treasury, than any private citizen had.

3. His sending Delaplaine, on this mission, was an act of sheer Executive usurpation.

4. A three-cent pre-paid letter, embodying the facts which the Governor says he knew so well, would have been just as effectual as the services of his minister plenipotentiary, and would have saved the State ($890) Eight Hundred and Ninety Dollars!

5. He had no right to touch a dollar of this $8,048 26, either to pay his own debts, or the debts of his friends. His duty was, if the money came into his hands, to place it in the hands of the State Treasurer, and wait for an appropriation, by the State Legislature, to pay the State creditors. For, if the Governor may thus supersede and override the acts of the Legislature, there is no need of having any Legislature. All the other departments of the Government may be dispensed with, and the Governor can administer the affairs of State alone.

6. Not a dollar of this $8,048 26, was ever paid into the State Treasury. $3,135 71 of it, he does not even pretend that he paid into the Treasury, and on the 31st day of December, 1851—the last day of grace of his Administration—he pretended to pay into the Treasury, the balance, $4,442 51, and at the same time he drew from the Treasury, without any warrant of law, $4,912 55, or $480 37 more than he pretended to put in.

7. There was appropriated, by act of March 15th, 1851, $1,922 88 to pay the balance of contingent expenses for the year 1850; and $4,000 for the contingent expenses of the State, for the year 1851—making in all, the sum of $5,922 88. Gov. Dewey has drawn on the contingent fund—in addition to $824 51 used for contingent expenses from the U. States payment, and $2,763 24 paid for the "dicker" with Delaplaine, Wheeler & Co.—$6,522 88, or ($600) Six Hundred Dollars more than the appropriation.

8. If the course of Gov. Dewey, in these matters, is sanctioned by the Legislature and the people, the Treasurer should never be required to give any bonds, the anxiety of Blossom, Hubbell & Co., might have been spared, and Gov. Farwell's friends may just step up to the Treasurer's office, as soon as it is replenished, and, by his authority, put their hands into the Treasury, up to their elbows.

6. Gov. Dewey was too immaculate to receive Free Soil votes, two years ago, but he is not too pure to use his official position, as Governor, to do a nice business in speculating on his own hook. S. M. B.

☞ "Who is that lovely girl?" exclaimed the witty Lord Norburry, in company with his friend Counsellor Grant.

"Miss Glass," replied the Counsellor.

"Glass," reiterated the facetious judge.—"I should often be intoxicated could I place such a glass to my lips!"

A Card.—City Marshal.

To all to whom it may concern:

J. B HUNT will be the next Marshal of the city of Milwaukee, provided he gets votes enough.

Christian Anti-Slavery Convention.

We, the undersigned, citizens of Milwaukee, and friends of the oppressed, would take this method of expressing our unanimous opinion in favor of the call from Palmyra, to hold a Christian, Anti-Slavery Meeting at that place, or Waukesha. That no time may be lost, we would name WAUKESHA. Meeting to be held the first Tuesday in February, 1852, in the Congregational Church, commencing at 7 o'clock P M

We would earnestly recommend to all the friends of Christ, to meet and unite together, counsel and resolve for the good of the SLAVE and the COUNTRY, and endeavor to ascertain the duty of his friends at this time, to increase the feeling of universal Brotherhood, and look to God for his blessing upon their labors. MARKETS, &c.

DAILY FREE DEMOCRAT OFFICE, January 26, 1852.

Business transactions in the various departments of trade have been extremely dull the last week. The inclemency of the weather the first of the week, checked the arrivals of produce to some extent. The scarcity of money seems to limit too, the transactions in the mercantile department.

Prices of all kinds of produce remain firm at former quotations, and the demand good.

About 9000 bush wheat received, quoted at 35a50 for spring; 50a72 for winter.

Receipts of flour some 2,500 bbls, worth $2,25a3—choice only, retail, $4

Barley 35a45c—receipts some 6000 bush

Oats 17c—3000 bush brought in.

Corn, very little coming in, worth 50c

Hogs, receipts not so large as previous week. Firm at $3,25a4

Editorial Correspondence.

MADISON, Friday, Jan. 23.

ASSEMBLY.—Prayer by Rev. Mr. Gardner. Petition of Mr. Sewall, referred to committee on charitable and religious societies. Petition of Mr. Howard, praying for the seat of Mr. Pierce, alleged to be ineligible from being a postmaster, referred to committee on privileges and elections; and a resolution was adopted calling on said Pierce to answer certain interrogatories.

Resolutions of the Supervisors of Columbia Co. relative to tax titles, referred to committee on Judiciary, asking that tax deeds be made conclusive evidence of title. Petition of Swift and others for a repeal of the License Law, referred to committee on that subject; another of same character—same reference. By Mr. Phelps, petition of A. Fowler and others for reduction of toll on grinding grain; another for the repeal of the license law. Petition from Winnebago Co., for a plank road from Neenah to Omro. Account of C. Latham Sholes, referred to committee on claims. Petition of the State Agricultural Society, for aid from the State.

Resolution instructing judiciary committee to inquire into the propriety of reporting a bill making tax deeds conclusive evidence of title.

By Mr. Cate, a Resolution to print 1000 copies of the Report of the State Agricultural Society—500 copies for the use of the Legislature, and 500 for the use of the Society. Referred to committee on agriculture and commerce.

The Ladues' accounts referred. Notices of several bills to be introduced, to-morrow.

Mr. Cain, on leave, introduced a bill to authorize the employment of the prisoners in Milwaukee county jail, on the public streets. Read twice.

Several local bills introduced.

The subject of appropriating money to pay reporters was taken up, and eternally postponed.

The Governor sent in a message recommending the printing of the Report of the State Agricultural Society, and also to extend to the interests of Agriculture further Legislative aid.

Irish Exile Resolutions taken up, Mr. Graham moved to concur with the Senate, in striking out Mr. Sholes' resolution. He thought, on the face of it, it was opposition to the release of the Irish Exiles. The resolutions were not disrespectful to England. He thought England would be glad of such an excuse as the request of this Government, for releasing the prisoners.

Mr. Conger had a great deal of sympathy for the enslaved, but thought this resolution would defeat the whole. It was improperly connected with the others. Slavery existed in this country, more by the force of circumstances than any thing else, but it was not illegal. Slavery existed by law. So that "the force of circumstances" means "law."

Mr. Sholes saw no discrepancy between the resolutions. He did not wish to embarrass the friends of the original resolutions.—He wished to assert a general principle, which, he thought strengthened, rather than weakened the original proposition. The resolutions were not to be sent to England, but to the President, who would properly dispose of them.

Mr. Barber opposed concurring with the Senate. The language of the resolution, was too indefinite. They included all Irish exiles—some of whom may not be fit subjects for our interference. They also assert, what he could not, that the English laws make loving one's native land, a crime.

Mr. Lewis hoped for concurrence. Was willing to help his Free Soil friends at the proper time.

Mr. Ramsey moved the previous question, and cut off the friends of the resolution from reply.

The vote to concur with the Senate, in striking out Mr. Sholes motion, was as follows:

AYES—Messrs. Abbott, Averbeck, Beck, Botkin, Briggs, Burnham, Cain, Cate, Conger, Catton, Cramond, Giles, Graham, Hackett, Hasse, Hilliard, Hoyt, Johnson, Knoll, Lawrence, Lewis, Maxon, Mckee, Monroe, Mott, Murphy, Patch, Pierce, Powers Ramsey, Root, Staats, Safford, Skinner, Sterling, Strong, Wood—37.

NOES—Messrs. Barber, Barlow, Blodgett, Bancroft, Burgess, Clemons, Cooper, Donaldson, Earnest, Fellows, Fyfe, Green Gordon, Kinney, McNaughton, Mead, Moore, Peak, Phelps, Richardson, Sholes, Sugden, Toay, Utley, Van Ostrand, Well, Worthington, Shatter, Speaker—28.

So the Assembly crawfished, at the dictation of the Senate, and what it affirmed, yesterday, 44 to 19, on a test vote, it repudiated to-day, by a vote of 37 to 28. Such an act requires no comment.

Assembly, 3 P. M.—In committee of the whole, on the general file of bills, Mr. Lewis in the chair.

Time spent chiefly on the Washington Co. seat. On coming out of committee, the Assembly had another long discussion on the same subject, and finally laid it on the table.

Bills read a third time—to amend the Sheboygan and Fond du Lac R. R. Co. Charter—from the Senate to provide for the collection of taxes of 1849, in Willow Spring, Lafayette Co—to change the name of two children in Kenosha—to build a bridge in Grant Co. Adjourned.

Senate not in session this P. M.

S. M. B.

THE WISDOM OF THE STATE.—Something new—March of Science.—To-day we have learned a new fact in the Science of Physiology. The Assembly has this day created three children, by the simple process of Legislative enactment—and, what is unusual, it was done in committee of the whole.

All the Doctors in the Assembly are opposed to Legislative interference in this matter. S. M. B.

Maine Liquor Law.—No. 6.

I think it quite important to establish, beyond all doubt, the fact that the Maine law has been enforced in the State of Maine, as I intend to argue from this, that it can, and will, be enforced in Wisconsin, if once enacted.

Neal Dow, Esq., Mayor of Portland, in a letter to the Secretary of the American Temperance Union, says:

"This law received the approval of the Governor on the 2d of last June, and the result of it has been, that, in the short time which has elapsed, almost all the grog-shops in the State are closed. The only exceptions are a few places, where strong liquors are sold secretly to such persons as are known to the keepers, but even these will be closed in a few months. Since the enactment of this law, the police of this city has had little to do in the way of keeping the peace, and the watch-house has been almost without a tenant. There are few commitments to our almshouse—in the months of June and July, only ONE. We already feel many of the advantages of the suppression of the drinking-houses and tippling-shops, with which our city abounded before the enactment of this law. It was estimated that there were in Portland, at the time the law went into operation, about four hundred places where intoxicating liquors were openly sold. At this present writing, [August 16th, 1851,] there is not one! Such has been the effect of a law upon this subject, stringent in its provisions, and summary in its processes, calculated to effect its objects. It cannot be resisted, or evaded; therefore no attempts to do it are made. By the 1st of January, 1852, I think it will be said with truth, that there is no place in Portland where intoxicating liquors are sold as a drink, either secretly or otherwise."

The Rev. A. Battle, of Maine, says:

"There is scarcely a city or village in the State, which has not been greatly improved by the existence of the law. So far as this city (Bangor) is concerned, every one is ready to admit the change. An intoxicated person is now rarely seen. Only about half as many have been imprisoned in the jail during the last three months, as in the three months previous."

The testimony of M. Davis, Esq., a lawyer of Belfast, is important:

"Our new law, severe as it is, has not met with a tithe of the opposition that the old law did. It is altogether the most popular with the rumsellers themselves. There are two reasons for this: First, it is successful, and anything to be popular must succeed; secondly, it makes us treat all alike. Formerly one might be convicted, and his neighbor escape. But now we take them in course. More than one rumseller in this place has told me, 'If you can entirely stop the traffic, I am glad of it; but if others sell, I will.' We take them at their word, and the traffic here is suppressed, tho' all the leading influences in the place were against us. Moreover, the law has done more to elevate public sentiment than any we have had. It proves that you may have a law which seems in advance of the public conscience, and build up that conscience by its means. This has been too much overlooked."

An important principle is here presented, which it would be well for all to think of. A law may be in advance of public opinion, and its justness and propriety may be so evident, after it has been fairly tested, as to bring the public conscience up to its support. Wise legislation is a powerful educator of public opinion. Not a few have no higher standard of right than the laws of the land.

The Rev. J. P. Richardson, of Otisfield, says:

"There is a mystery about the state of things in Maine which I can hardly solve. The passage of our Temperance law by so overwhelming a majority, surprised both the friends and foes of Temperance. The general and almost universal submission to the law, is still more surprising."

The Rev. C. Palfrey, of Belfast, says:

"The law has been a matter of wonder to me from the beginning. It took me entirely by surprise. It was not preceded by the usual preparatory discussion, preceding an extraordinary step in legislation. When I first read it, I regretted it. I thought it far outwent public opinion,—that it could not be enforced,—that any attempt to enforce it would make trouble, and would react unfavorably. I have been surprised again to find these apprehensions so groundless,—that the law has been so universally and quietly submitted to."

The Rev. F. Yates, of Gardner, under date of Sept. 29th, 1851, says:

"The law has been in force a little more than three months, and that short period has sufficed to work a great and glorious revolution. In all our cities and large villages, the open sale of intoxicating drinks has been entirely suppressed, and the secret sale in most places is very limited, and is daily 'growing beautifully less.' I could give you a volume of interesting facts in proof of this remark. In this city, the last rumseller has advertised his buildings to let for a term of years, and has himself taken lodging in the county jail."

It cannot be denied that there have been several attempts made to resist the enforcement of the law, in some two or three localities, but I believe in every instance the authorities have finally triumphed; and we cannot doubt that such will be result in every future attempt at resistance.

If the law can be enforced in the State of Maine, why may it not be in Wisconsin?

I will endeavor to answer this question in my next article. S. D. H.

State Historical Society.

MADISON, Jan. 23.

The Annual meeting of the State Historical Society was held in the State Library Room, this evening. The officers elected for the ensuing year, were—

Gov. Leonard J. Farwell, President.

1 Vice President from each County.

Rev. Charles Lord, of Madison, Recording Secretary and Treasurer.

I. A. Lapham, Esq., of Milwaukee, Corresponding Secretary.

Executive Committee—John Catlin, Beriah Brown and Alex. Botkin.

Resolutions of thanks were passed to Societies and individuals, for valuable books presented during the year. Judge Hubbell was too much engaged on the Blossom bond, to keep his engagement to deliver the annual Address.

Gen. Wm. R. Smith, of Mineral Point, was elected to deliver the next annual Address, and S. M Booth, of Milwaukee, substitute.

The Secretary was instructed to request, through the press, members to pay their annuals dues—50 cents, and the Society voted that the proprietors of such papers as would publish such notice, should be members of the Society without the payment of any fee.

The State has given to the Society copies of the Laws and Journals, except the Laws prior to 1843, and the Laws of 1847. And as it is important to have a complete series, it is requested that members or others, having duplicate copies of any of these laws, will present them to the Society. S. M. B.

AN OPPORTUNITY TO MAKE A FORTUNE.

FOR SALE,

THE NEW AND WELL-KNOWN

HORICON GRIST MILL,

And the Property connected with it, of

ABOUT SIXTY ACRES OF LAND,

WHICH is surveyed into VILLAGE LOTS, on which there are two good DWELLING-HOUSES, convenient to the business of the town. The Mill is in successful operation, and is prepared to do good custom and merchant work.

The village of HORICON is located on Rock River, at the foot of Lake Horicon, in Dodge county, in this State, in one of the richest and most fertile portions of Wisconsin. Its WATER POWER is equal, if not superior, to any one in the State, and is capable of driving any amount of Machinery. Horicon has advantages that no other point in the country possesses, it being the nearest place to touch at from all the northwestern travel. The

Milwaukee and Lisbon Plank Road is located to this town—is graded 22 miles, and planked 18 miles west of Milwaukee. The Union Valley Rail-Road,

from Fond du Lac to Janesville, runs through the place, and is selected as one of the points for a Depot. The site of the village is one of the most beautiful and romantic in the entire State. It was the home, thirty-two years ago, of the celebrated Indian war chief, BLACK HAWK. The place is growing fast, and is situated between the heavy timbered oak openings and prairie lands. The timbered lands afford plenty of LUMBER and TIMBER for all the surrounding country.

HORICON contains about three hundred inhabitants. There are four Stores, two Taverns, two Saw-Mills, three Cooper Shops, two Waggon Maker's Shops, two Cabinet Shops, one Machine Shop, two Tailor Shops, and two Shoemaker Shops.

The attention of Millers and Capitalists is invited to this property.

WAUKESHA FEMALE SEMINARY

Miss S. L. MARTYN, and Miss E. A. CHESTER, } Principals.

THE Second Term of the Waukesha Seminary, commenced on the 17th instant, under the instruction of Misses S. L. Martyn and E. A. Chester, both graduates of Rutgers' Institute, New York City, an Institution for young ladies which is second to none in the United States. The high testimonials which these young ladies bring with them of good scholarship, warrant the expectation that the school under their instructions, will furnish all who may patronize it an opportunity of giving their daughters, at a moderate expense, a thorough education in the English, Classical and Ornamental departments.

STUDIES.—Instruction will be given in all the branches of an English education, and such other branches as are taught in our highest Female Seminaries.

TERMS.—The year will be divided into four terms, of eleven weeks each, commencing on the 17th November, 1851.

DR. STORM'S SCOTCH COUGH CANDY

WE, THE UNDERSIGNED,

Druggists of St. Louis, do hereby Certify,

THAT the following is a correct statement of the amount of our sales of the preparation known as Dr. STORM'S SCOTCH COUGH CANDY, prepared from his original recipe, by HAMILTON WADE, of Saint Louis; and we take pleasure in saying that it has given general satisfaction to those of our customers who have used it, as a remedy for diseases of the chest and lungs:

Joseph R Fisher,	400	do
Dench, Peloiux & Co	500	do
R Annan,	250	do
G W Westbrook,	408	do
Snow & Quirk,	450	do
James McGuire,	298	do

Saint Louis, March 13, 1847

☞ In addition to the above, 300 packages were sold by James M Corse; 480 by Dr A Pigot; 200 by Edward Brooks; 432 by Bacon and Hyde; 200 by John Bunding; 75 by Dr. Donaldson; by Dr A Willing 75; and 300 by W and W Kirkpatrick—which, together with the sales by the wholesale agents, prove that this article is altogether superior to any other remedy ever offered for Consumption

⁂ This is the only Medicated Candy in the United States that will not impair by exposure to the atmosphere. Merchants would do well to bear this in mind when making their purchases. When any loss is sustained from dampness, the proprietor will bear it.

Price, One Dime per Roll; Three Rolls for 25 Cents; or $1 per dozen.

☞ A liberal discount made to Country Merchants. For sale by Druggists and Country Merchants generally throughout the U. States and the Canadas.

The Candy is neatly put up, with directions for use. A handsome engraving of the Scottish Coat of Arms, and the written signature of Hamilton Wade, [proprietor] is on the outside wrapper of each roll and package.

Messrs. BARNARD, BRO & CO. wholesale Druggists, 140 Main street, Saint Louis, Mo. are the General Agents. Orders from the country, or applications for agency, directed to them, will meet with prompt attention.

GREAT WORK ON CIVILIZATION.

This valuable work, has just arrived at

C. OTT'S BOOKSTORE.

It is the work of the age. From a large number of liberal and highly complimentary notices of this work, from the religious and secular press, we only select the following:

"This admirable work is at length before us, and we hasten to inform our readers of the valuable addition, which has thus been made to the Literature of our country. The work is by far the most important of its kind, ever published in this country. It is in fact a complete library in itself, condensed and so arranged as to bring the whole question within the grasp of the humblest reader. It appears most appropriately at the present time, and will, no doubt, prove an instrument of great efficacy in the work of diffusing sound doctrines on the matters of which it treats."—Truth Teller. april 22

EAGLE STEAM POWER FOUNDRY,

MILWAUKEE, WISCONSIN.

TURTON & SERCOMB, Proprietors.

RESPECTFULLY beg to inform their friends and the public generally, that they manufacture all kinds of

Cast and Wrought Iron Work, for Grist and Saw Mills. Also, all kinds of Machinery, at their well known establishment, Nos 298 and 300 West Water street.

They are themselves both practical mechanics, the one a pattern maker of twenty years' experience, The other a moulder of thirty years' experience.—they likewise employ none but the very best workmen that can be obtained.

Their stock of patterns cannot be equalled—they have all been made in this city, expressly for the wants of this State—they can and will do better work than any similar establishment in this State, and on the shortest notice. June 26, 1851.

CHICAGO BRASS AND BELL FOUNDRY.

H. W. RINCKER,

NO. 108 RANDOLPH STREET, - CHICAGO,

Also on Canal street, opposite Foss' Planing Mill.

THE Proprietor of this establishment is now prepared to cast bells of all sizes. He would particularly invite those who wish to purchase Church Bells, to those of his manufacture. His bells will be sold on as reasonable terms as they can be purchased from the east, or from agents of eastern establishments. They will be sold cheaper In fact, because he can make as good a bell, that will give as large a volume of sound as those of eastern manufacture, with one-fourth less weight of metal, and this proportion of money is thus saved in the purchase of his bells. He warrants them not to break for one year with proper usage, and should one fail or not prove to be as good as represented, it may be returned to his shop, and be made good without expense to the purchaser, by a re-cast; or be replaced by a new one. If one should break any time during his life, he will re-cast it for half the expense of casting. Western people will see the advantage in dealing with a western man, and patronizing western interests.

Mr Rincker is a German, a bell founder by profession, and he is confident that he thoroughly understands his business.

He will cast bells to any key or tone that may be desired; he can also cast his bells to chime in harmony. Heretofore the chiming bells used in this country have been brought from Europe; but he is able to make them as correct and musical in tone as any that may be imported

His bells have taken the premiums at the two last Fairs of the Chicago Mechanics' Institute—the last Fair awarding him a gold medal The following is the copy of the report of the committee on the bell submitted for inspection to the Fair of May, 1850:

Article 11, Class No 6, Church Bells.

A bell of 740 pounds, by H W Rincker, of this city, is well made and a smooth casting. It exhibits a great degree of skill in its manufacture; has an admirable tone and throws a greater volume of sound than any bell of its size; a trial was had between the above bell and one manufactured by Mr Meneely, of Troy, N Y, the latter being considerably the heavier of the two—956 pounds. The arrangement for ringing Mr Rincker's bell was temporary and by far inferior to that of Mr Meneely's, notwithstanding which we believe that there was but little difference in the distance that the two bells could be heard, and that the tone of Mr Rincker's bell was by far the most pleasing to the ear. A Gold Medal was awarded to Mr Rincker.

The above is a true copy of the Report.

G R SLOAT, Secretary

Board Directors Chicago Mechanics Institute

Mr Rincker is also prepared to do all kinds of Brass work, casting and furnishing, on short notice and in good style, such as machinery, magnetic machines, physical instruments, soda fountains, beer pumps, stop-cocks, oil globes, etc, etc

Also heavy Copper work for all purposes.

Old Brass and Copper purchased, and taken in ex change for bells, at the market prices.

Chicago, 1851

GRECIAN FANCHERONIAN DROPS.

A sure and safe remedy for, and will positively cure Sick Headache, Chills and Fever; Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic Diarrhœa, Sea Sickness, Cholera, and Cholera Infantum, and restore a healthy action to the liver, without a particle of calomel, mercury, quinine or morphine entering into their compound. They do not purport to be a remedy for all manner of diseases that flesh is heir to, but experience warrants us in saying the above they will positively cure. They will also correct all derangement of the stomach, and relieve from those aches and pains throughout the system commonly called rheumatism. It is an excellent remedy for the Gravel, and as a Vermifuge or Worm medicine, there is none better.

Prepared only by Dr J S FANCHER, 140 Fulton street, New York, a few doors from Broadway.

HEALTH IS WEALTH.

THE GRAEFENBERG COMPANY'S

UNRIVALLED and universally used Medicines, have long received the approbation and patronage of those in pursuit of Health. If there are any who do not know their virtues, or doubt their efficacy, it is only requested that they will make a trial of them. The Company would call the attention of the Public to the innumerable Certificates (unbought) from the most responsible men, (including many names among the regular Faculty,) which they preserve on file at their office.

These Standard Medicines may be found at wholesale or retail, at the office of the Northwestern Agency,

23 WISCONSIN STREET, MILWAUKEE, and in every Town and Village in the State.

☞ They may be depended upon with the utmost confidence. ☜

The following series have been before the community for more than five years, and are compounded from ingredients which have been thoroughly tested by scientific chemists:

The Græfenberg Dysentery Syrup.

This extraordinary article is a speedy and infallible remedy in diarrhœa, bloody flux, cholera morbus, cholera infantum, and the Asiatic cholera, and should be taken with the first symptoms, viz: vomiting and diarrhœa. Now is the season for its use, and it should be in every family, ready for any emergency. It is purely vegetable, and harmless in itself, and never fails to cure the worst cases, and generally in a few hours.

The Græfenberg Vegetable Pills,

Are particularly valuable for the prevention and cure of Fevers in general, all Bilious and Liver Complaints, general debility, sick headache, dyspepsia, heart burn, costiveness, and in fine, for all ordinary family uses. To their great virtues, thousands of families in this State have testified.

The Græfenberg Green Mountain Ointment,

As a pain extractor, cannot be excelled. For the cure of burns, wounds, sprains, sores, rheumatism, and outward affections of all kinds, it knows no rival. Its power to relieve pain and reduce inflammation, gives it a distinguishing feature over all other Ointment.

MARSHALL'S UTERINE CATHOLICON,

May, without exaggeration, be termed one of the most extraordinary Medicines of the age. Its cures of the distressing ills incident to Females, have been most useful and gratifying. It is prepared by Dr. Theo. Pomeroy, of Utica, and no ill effect can result from its use, and a cure is certain in most cases. None who are afflicted should be prevented, from motives of delicacy, from giving it a thorough trial, in cases of Prolapsis Uteri. All who have used it, unhesitatingly pronounce it the greatest boon which has been given the sex.

The other Græfenberg Medicines are the Eye Lotion, Health Bitters, Consumptive Balm, Children's Panacea, Fever & Ague Pills, Libby's Pile Ointment, Sarsaparilla Compound.

The Græfenberg Manual of Health,

A complete hand-book of Medicine, for families, containing 300 pages. Price 25 cents—emphatically the most valuable book of the day. Should be a volume for reference in the library of every family.

☞ Full directions go with the Græfenberg Medicines, a constant supply of which may be always found at the Company's Agency.

A NEW ARTICLE!

JOHNSON'S CHEMICAL

HAIR INVIGORATOR,

To prevent baldness, and to restore the hair that has fallen off or become thin, and to cure effectually Scurf or Dandruff.

Prepared only by S. JOHNSON, Jr., 151 East Water street, Milwaukee.

FOR THE TOILET.

THE Invigorator is considered infinitely better than oil or grease for the hair, and is an article in which a cleansing and purifying wash is beautifully blended with a most delicate, silky and glossy moisture for the hair, never before attained, yet free from animal grease or essential oils It clears the pores of the skin, causes a healthy action of the blood vessels, nerves, &c, which free the hair, thereby preventing baldness and gray hair, entirely frees the skin from scurf, dandruff, and other cutaneous diseases, disposes the hair to curl, and keeps it so; will positively change the hardest hair into the most soft, healthy, glossy state; also imparts to it a darker color, and the free use of it will keep both the skin and hair in a healthy and luxuriant state until the latest period of life

Ladies will find the Invigorator a great addition to the Toilet, both on account of its delicate and agreeable perfume, and the great facilities it affords in dressing the hair, which, when moist with the Invigorator, can be dressed in any required form, so as to preserve its place, whether plain or in curls. When used on children's heads, it lays the foundation for a good head of hair. nov24
